Dollar Health Centre, Park Place, Dollar

Practice privacy notice. Dollar Medical Practice has a legal duty to explain how we use any personal information we collect about you, as a registered patient at the practice. Staff at this practice maintain records about your health and the treatment you receive in electronic and paper forma

What information do we collect about you? We will collect information such as personal details, including name, address, next of kin, records of appointments, visits, telephone calls, your health records, treatment and medications, test results, X-rays, etc. and any other relevant information to enable us to deliver effective medical care.

How we will use your information. Your data is collected for the purpose of providing direct patient care; however, we can disclose this information if it is required by law, if you give consent or if it is justified in the public interest. The practice may be requested to support research; however, we will always gain your consent before sharing your information with medical research databases when the law allows. Sometimes the NHS also uses relevant information about your health to help improve NHS services and public health in Scotland – for example, to find out how many people have a particular illness or disease. If so, information that identifies you is removed if possible. If the NHS uses information that does identify you (for example, to include it in a disease register), they must explain how and why your information will be used. Processing your information in this way and obtaining your consent ensures that we comply with Articles 6(1)(c), 6(1)(e) and 9(2)(h) of the GDPR

Maintaining confidentiality and accessing your records. We are committed to maintaining confidentiality and protecting the information we hold about you. We adhere to the General Data Protection Regulation (GDPR), the NHSScotland Code of Practice, as well as guidance issued by the Information Commissioner's Office (ICO). You have a right to access the information we hold about you, and if you would like to access this information, you will need to complete a Subject Access Request (SAR). Please ask at reception for a SAR form and you will be given further information. Furthermore, should you identify any inaccuracies, you have a right to have the inaccurate data corrected

Risk stratification. Risk stratification is a mechanism used to identify and subsequently manage those patients deemed as being at high risk of requiring urgent or emergency care. Usually this includes patients with long-term conditions, e.g. cancer. Your information is collected by a number of sources, including Dollar Medical Practice this information is processed electronically and given a risk score which is relayed to your GP who can then decide on any necessary actions to ensure that you receive the most appropriate care.

If you are receiving care from other medical professionals or other organisations, we can provide information relevant to the care you are receiving.

Invoice validation. Your information may be shared if you have received treatment to determine which health board is responsible for paying for your treatment. This information may include your name, address and treatment date. All of this information is held securely and confidentially; it will not be used for any other purpose or shared with any third parties.

Opt-outs. You have a right to object to your information being shared. Should you wish to opt out of data collection, please contact a member of staff who will be able to explain how you can opt out and prevent the sharing of your information; this is done by writing to NSS, preventing your information from being shared outside this practice. Retention periods. In accordance with the Records Management NHS Codes of Practice (Scotland), your healthcare records will be retained for the duration of your life and for 3 years after your death.

What to do if you have any questions. Should you have any questions about our privacy policy or the information we hold about you, you can:

1. Contact the practice's data controller via email FV.DollarHC@nhs.scot GP practices are data controllers for the data they hold about their patients1
2. Write to the data controller at Dollar Health Centre, Park Place, Dollar, FK14 7AA
3. Ask to speak to the Practice Manager, Jen Walls, The Data Protection Officer (DPO) details for Dollar Health Centre

Complaints. In the unlikely event that you are unhappy with any element of our data-processing methods, you have the right to lodge a complaint with the ICO. For further details, visit ico.org.uk and select 'Raising a concern'.

Changes to our privacy policy. We regularly review our privacy policy and any updates will be published on our website, on our Reception Screen and on posters to reflect the changes. This policy is to be reviewed March 2023. Although we may be using your information or asking you about treatment received, when the audit or report is completed all of the details which could identify you have been removed.

Access to health records

The General Data Protection Act 2018 gives you the right to access your health records, both manual and computer records. Only in very exceptional circumstances can access be withheld.

Without your consent, no other person or organisation can access your records. With the exception of legal and statutory obligations, the only circumstances when information may be provided about you would be if the release of the information would be in the interest of the greater public good.

For example notification to DVLA of a medical condition which would preclude you from driving.

Applications for accessing your records must be made in writing and sent to the Practice Manager. There may be a charge for this service.

Training

All doctors, nurses and staff receive annual training on confidentiality and data protection.

For more information please speak to the Practice Manager.
